

The Boone Conservancy, Inc., a 501(c)3 non-profit land trust located in Burlington, Kentucky is seeking a permanent Executive Director. The Boone Conservancy is a private, non-profit conservation organization. The Conservancy facilitates the permanent protection of nature parks and lands with unique or significant recreational, natural, scenic, historical, and/or cultural value in Boone County, Kentucky. The Conservancy works with the business community, landowners, developers, government, and citizens through partnerships and voluntary acquisitions of land and easements.

The attached description contains the position role and responsibilities. A college degree (BA or BS) in a related field and three years work experience in a non-profit setting with a fund-raising background is required. Experience with state and federal compensatory mitigation programs is strongly recommended. Comprehensive knowledge of standard office practices, procedures, equipment, and techniques is required. The position is full or part-time negotiable, and salary negotiable. Please submit resume to tbconservancy@gmail.com. No phone calls please. The Boone Conservancy website is www.thebooneconservancy.org. Deadline December 21, 2018.